

NOTICE

As a consumer, upon request, you are entitled to know the current pharmacy retail price of brand-name drugs and any generically equivalent drug available at a pharmacy, where applicable as well as your cost-sharing amount of the brand-name drug and any generically equivalent drug available at a pharmacy, where applicable.

You can view more information about health care insurance coverage by visiting Pennsylvania's Official Health Insurance Marketplace located at <https://pennie.com/>.

A consumer's health care choices, including whether a particular on-exchange health insurance policy is appropriate for the consumer, should not be based solely on the information provided, but should instead be considered in connection with the consumer's other health care and financial circumstances.

You can review the Pharmacy Act, including Section 9.6 (relating to price disclosure) and the Board's regulations on the State Board of Pharmacy's website through the following link:
